

Access plan to the Tour du Valat

Points GPS:
43.5089° North
4.66757° East

BY ROAD

Coming from Nîmes

In Arles, go toward Saintes-Marie-de-la-Mer then turn left toward Salin de Giraud. Go beyond the village of Sambuc. Roughly 800 m beyond the village limits, take the first road to the right (C136 toward Fiélouse). After 3 km, go over the canal (an S-shaped curve) and keep going straight on the path to the Tour du Valat.

NB: It is approximately 30 km from Arles to the Tour du Valat. FYI: there are no petrol stations along the way.

Coming from Marseille

Go toward Port-Saint-Louis-du-Rhône - Salin de Giraud. Before you get to Port-Saint-Louis, turn on the D35 (to the right after the bridge) toward the Bac de Barcarin (toll boat). After crossing the Rhone, turn right in the direction of Arles (D36) and drive for approximately 12 km. Before you get to the hamlet of Sambuc, turn left on the C136 toward Fiélouse. After 3 km, go over the canal (an S-shaped curve) and keep going straight on the path to the Tour du Valat.

BY TRAIN

SNCF train station in Arles. Take the TGV Méditerranée high speed train to Avignon, Marseille or Nîmes.

BY PLANE

The airports in Nîmes (25 km) and Marseille-Marignane (65 km) are the closest.

A shuttle bus (departure every 30 min) links the Marseille-Marignane airport to the SNCF train station (Marseille Saint-Charles).