

Monday 27th – Morning & Afternoon

11:00	Departure from Estación Biológica de Doñana
12:30 - 13:00	Arrival &amp; Attendance
13:30	Lunch
15:00	Jordi Figuerola – Doñana (Spain) Opening Statement
15:15	Manuel Mañez &amp; Monitoring Team – Doñana (Spain) Twenty-two years of monitoring of GI in Doñana
15:45	Simone Santoro – Doñana (Spain) What we learnt from GI at Doñana
16:15	Coffee
16:45	Jocelyn Champagnon – France Assessing the effect of disturbance during ringing operations of GI
17:15	Arnaud Béchet – France The history and achievements of the Greater flamingo network in the Mediterranean and West-Africa
17:45	Pablo Vera – Albufera de Valencia (Spain) L'Albufera de Valencia and the return of GI: a matter of change in habitat availability in the right time?
18:15	Antoni Curcò – Delta del Ebro (Spain) Status of GI in the Ebre delta
18:45	Vitor Encarnaçao – Portugal Situation of the GI in mainland Portugal
20:15	Dinner

Tuesday 28th – Morning

9:00	Breakfast
10:00	Elchin Sultanov – Azerbaijan GI in Azerbaijan
10:30	Riad Nedjeh – Algeria GI in Numidia, Algeria: Population trend and habitat selection - A preliminary account of GI dispersal: The role of Algerian wetlands and implications for metapopulation conservation
11:10	Aymen Nefla – Tunisia Past and present of GI in Tunisia
11:40	Coffee
12:10	Luis Santiago Cano – IUCN SSC Stork, Ibis and Spoonbill Specialist Group Ring recoveries of GI with a special focus on Sahel region: generating hypotheses for gene flow in Eurasia and Africa
12:40	Alejandro Centeno-Cuadros – BIOTECH BUSINESS Gene flow patterns and population genetic structure of the Glossy ibis
13:30	Lunch

Tuesday 28th – Afternoon

15:00	Stefano Volponi – Italy Current status of the GI in Italy
15:30	Andreas Bračko – Croatia Captive GI population and ex situ opportunities – GI in Croatia
16:00	Slobodan Puzovic – Serbia GI in Serbia and central Balkan countries
16:30	Alexandru Dorosencu and Mitică Ciorpac – Romania Past and current situation of GI in Romania
17:00	Coffee
17:30	Savas Kazantzidis – Greece The GI in Greece
18:00	Ortaç Onmus – Turkey The Current Status of GI in Turkey
18:30	Gopi Sundar and Swati Kittur – IUCN SSC Stork, Ibis and Spoonbill Specialist Group (India) GI distribution and abundance in Indian agricultural landscapes: seasonal and spatial variations
19:00	Kate Brandis – Australia The past, present and future of GI in Australia and Oceania
20:30	Dinner at “Restaurante El Miguel” in Matalascañas

Wednesday 29th – Morning & Afternoon

9:00	Breakfast
10:00	Leaving
11:00 – 13:00	Birdwatching Guided Tour
13:30	Lunch at the “Dehesa de Abajo” Visitor Centre
15:30	Closing Statement
17:00	Departure from Dehesa de Abajo
18:00	Arrival to the Estación Biológica de Doñana